EPISCOPAL CHURCH

MISA GUADALUPANA
12 DICIEMBRE 2021

FESTAL PROCESSION AND HOLY EUCHARIST
IN HONOR OF
OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

HYMN IN PROCESSION

LA GUADALUPANA

From the heavens on a beautiful morning,
la Guadalupe came down to Tepeyac.
La Guadalupe came down to Tepeyac.

She joined her hands and prayed,
her image was Mexican, she shared their features and demeanor.
her image was Mexican, she shared their features and demeanor.

Her arrival, a moment of joy, brought light and harmony, light and harmony throughout the Anahuac.
Light and harmony, light and harmony throughout the Anahuac.

As Juan Diego passed by the mountainside
he heard a heavenly song. As he got closer, he heard that heavenly song.
he heard a heavenly song. As he got closer, he heard that heavenly song.

'Juan Dieguito', our Lady called him,
'this hill I have chosen, this hill I have chosen to make my altar.
This hill I have chosen, this hill I have chosen to make my altar.'

On his cloak, among images of painted roses
she left her very own picture, her beloved image.
Her beloved image, she left.

From that time on, every Mexican became Guadalupan being Guadalupan is essential.
Being Guadalupan, being Guadalupan is essential.

THE READINGS

Please be seated

FIRST READING

ADAPTED FROM THE NICAN MOPOHUA

Lector/a A reading from the story of Our Lady of Guadalupe and Juan Diego.

Juan Diego returned to the mountain and at the top he saw the Mother from heaven, at the very spot where she had appeared the first time. Seeing her, he fell to his knees and said, "Blessed Lady, the smallest of my daughters, my Child, I went to the Bishop, where you sent me, to fulfill your wish. I did not want to go, but I obeyed you. I saw him and shared your message; he received me graciously and listened attentively but I knew that he did not believe your command to build a temple on this mountain. I implore you Blessed Lady, that you send another messenger instead of me, someone known, respected, and esteemed. If we entrust your message to someone like that, the Bishop will surely believe. The Bishop does not believe me because I am a lesser man, small, and insignificant. You, my Lady, you send me to a place where I do not belong. Forgive me if I cause you great sorrow."

Our Lady replied: "Listen, my son, I understand what you are saying, but I need you to know that I can choose many servants and messengers, but I want you to do my bidding, I choose you. You are the one that I command to return tomorrow to the Bishop. Tell him once again who sends you. Say that it is my will that he build a temple in my honor. Tell him, that the ever Blessed Virgin Mary, mother of God, is the one who sends you."

Juan Diego answered: "My Lady, I do not wish to cause you any affliction. In no way will I cease to follow your wish, nor will my journey be shameful to me. I will go, I will fulfill your command; but I will not be heard with pleasure. If I am heard, perhaps I will not be believed. "Tomorrow afternoon, when the sun sets, I will come to hear the bishop's response. I bid you farewell, until tomorrow, my Lady. May you rest until my return."

Lector/a Here ends the reading.

People Thanks be to God.

1 O Lord, my heart is not proud; *
I have no haughty looks.

2 I do not occupy myself with great matters, *
or with things that are too hard for me.

3 But I still my soul and make it quiet, like a child upon its mother's breast; *
my soul is quieted within me.

4 O Israel, wait upon the Lord, *
from this time forth for evermore.

CANTICLE OF MARY: THE MAGNIFICAT

ST. LUKE 1: 46-55

Lector My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior; *
for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant.

From this day all generations will call me blessed: *
the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name.

He has mercy on those who fear him *
in every generation.

He has shown the strength of his arm, *
he has scattered the proud in their conceit.

He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, *
and has lifted up the lowly.

He has filled the hungry with good things, *
and the rich he has sent away empty.

He has come to the help of his servant Israel, *
for he has remembered his promise of mercy,

The promise he made to our fathers, *
to Abraham and his children for ever.

Lector Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
People as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Please stand if you are able for the Sequence Hymn and the reading of the Gospel.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

ST. LUKE 1:39-45

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ!

In those days Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me? For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord."

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

SERMON

The Rev. Daniel Vélez Rivera
Vicar of St. Gabriel's~San Gabriel Episcopal Church

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son
he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

PRESENTATION HYMN

To you, Virgin of Guadalupe,
I offer you a song of courage,
a song that all of Mexico gladly offers you.

And I want to repeat what you already know, that Mexico loves you, that we are never sad, because calling your name puts fire in our souls.

Your name is whispered and the world knows that you are our pride, that Mexico is yours, and that you hold the key.

Long live the Queen of the Mexican people,
whose hands planted beautiful roses,
and who held up our heads to see stars above.

You protect our land, our wonderful country,
and you blessed it because on this land,
you wanted a sanctuary, closer to heaven.

I know that from heaven you listen to my song, and that with love your mantle covers us, darling Virgin, you are a wonder.

MY RANCHERA VIRGIN

My indigenous Virgin, my ranchera Virgin, you are our Queen; Mexico and its people are yours.

Long live the Queen of the Mexican people,
whose hands planted beautiful roses,
and held up our heads to see the stars above.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

AN IMMIGRANT'S EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with your spirit.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right and just that we should worship you and always give you thanks good Lord, because you created Heaven with your mighty love and like a generous mother you entrusted us with the Earth when you birthed us into this home. You adorned the Earth with prairies and mountain ranges, with volcanoes and mighty rivers, with caressing islands, luxuriant jungles, and desolate deserts.

But we fell into sin and turned our backs to you. We took away what had been yours and fenced it in with barbed wire, we turned against one another and from the paradise you entrusted us, we created an infernal world of pain and misery. Millions of your children looked for hope in other lands.

But you didn't abandon those who abandoned you. You forgave us and loved us; the way that devoted parents do. In the best of times you sent us your very Son, Jesus, who emigrated from Heaven to Earth to live among us.

And so, we worship you with all the Angels and Archangels, our ancestors, and with all those who enjoy the kingdom that someday we too will join as we proclaim:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of the universe.

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of the universe.

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of the universe.

Heaven and earth are full of your Glory.

Heaven and earth are full of your Glory.

Hosanna, Hosanna, Hosanna in the highest.

Hosanna, Hosanna, Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna, Hosanna, Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna, Hosanna, Hosanna in the highest.

The people may stand or kneel as able

Your Son Jesus Christ and our brother, an immigrant from Heaven and role model of immigrants, used his own hands to work the wood. He was poor like us, but he gave us the gift of your grace.

He walked on dusty paths to make your Word known to all, to proclaim forgiveness and amnesty, to announce to the poor the Good News of his liberation.

On the night that he washed the feet of his friends, the same night that he was betrayed and handed over to be tortured, our Lord and companion Jesus, took the bread into his Holy hands, raised his eyes to Heaven and blessed the bread. He broke it and shared it with his friends saying these divine words:

Take and eat, this is my Body given to you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Then he took the cup into his Holy hands, raised his eyes to you God in Heaven, blessed the wine and shared it with his friends saying these divine words:

Friends, drink from this cup because it is the cup of a new alliance in my blood. Blood that was spilled for you and for the human family, for the forgiveness of sins. Each time that you drink it, do it for the remembrance of me.

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

People Christ died to give us life.
 Christ resurrected to make us free.
 Christ will come again to restore his Kingdom.

The Celebrant continues

Father and Mother of creation, at this memorial of amnesty and forgiveness we celebrate the wonder of your love. We offer you this bread and this wine: blessed by the Holy Spirit to become the body and blood of your Son, our companion; food and nourishment for people on their way. Bless us so that we can become the makers of your justice and the instruments of your peace in a torn world.

Unite us in the faith, hope and love of your Church as it lives in all the corners of the world. We pray for every member of the Church, for our bishops, priests, and deacons: May we be loyal heralds of your word and witnesses of your liberation.

Be compassionate toward those who suffer from loneliness and despair. Save the victims of hunger, homelessness, oppression, addictions, persecution, and those who live in terror of war or torture in prison.

We pray that we may all share in the hope of glory and be led one day to your Kingdom, where we will enjoy eternal rest and sing your praises. By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all Glory and honor are yours Almighty God, now and forever.

People AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER please stand as you are able

Sung by the Mariachi Ay, Ay, Ay

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever.

Amen.

HYMN DURING COMMUNION

MOST BEAUTIFUL VIRGIN

You are our hope, in the image of a mother the Lord patiently commanded that you ask God for his wrath not to fall upon this sinful world.

Your love is so pure and beautiful,
that humble people bow down at your feet,
I dare not look into your eyes
I feel unworthy before you.

Refrain How I wish, beloved and Blessed Virgin that my love become an offering,
and so I offer you my love.
Beloved, Queen of Heaven, wonderful light which always protects us.

Today, before your altar and in your presence,
I give you my heart
with prayers and promises for you to give to your Son the Lord.

You are the pride of the land,
you chose Mexico
as the home for the poor,
to receive your love and your blessings.

refrain

With great pleasure we come and with great devotion to share what is deep in our heart.
Today we all celebrate, even in the remotest parts of the world, as we pray for forgiveness to flourish and for resentments to be held at bay.

Virgin and Blessed Mother,
you are the most precious star of all creation.
Indigenous Virgin, Queen of Hope,
today we sing the hymn for humility.
You are like the earth, where faith is sown
and from where goodness is reaped.

Here we come Blessed Mother with bodies more weary than the last time we spoke, but with such great love for you that can barely fit in our hearts because you give divine comfort and you light up the way.
We give you thanks for always remaining faithful to the pilgrims on this life's journey.

Blessed Virgin I cannot leave without giving you a thousand words of thanksgiving and you know why.
While I have you, let me pray for those who do justice even as they die of thirst.

Indigenous Virgin, Queen of Hope
today we sing the hymn for humility.
You are like the earth where our faith is sown
and from where goodness is reaped.

Lord, you have come to the lake shore looking neither for wealthy nor wise ones;
you only asked me to follow humbly.

Refrain O Lord, with your eyes you have searched me,
and while smiling, have spoken my name;
now my boat's left the shoreline behind;
by your side I will seek other seas.

You know of all my possessions;
my boat carries no gold and no weapons;
there you will find my nets and my labor. refrain

You need my hands, full of caring, through my labors I'll give others rest,
and constant love that will keep on loving. refrain

You, who have fished other oceans, ever longed for by souls that are waiting,
my loving friend, so now you call me. refrain

PRAYERS AFTER COMMUNION

Please stand if you are able

People Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessed Virgin of Guadalupe, Mother and Queen of the Americas, we humbly come before your Holy image. To you we offer prayers of hope, dearest Mother and intercessor. In you we put our hope. You give life and you give comfort. We cannot have fear under your protective shadow as we sit in your maternal lap. Help us in our earthly pilgrimage and intercede for us before your Divine Son at the moment of death, so that we may reach eternal life. Amen.

These are the words that King David sang.
Today is your saint day and we honor you with song.

Awake my dearest, awake, look, the dawn has come!
The birds join in song as the moon sets above us.

How beautiful this morning in which I bring you my greeting.
We all come proclaiming with joy and pleasure to give you our best wishes!

On the day that you were born, the flowers were also born, and at the baptismal font the nightingales joined in song.

The dawn is about to come, and the light of day is upon us.
Get up from your bed, and see what the dawn has brought.
